

Connecting Communities

Supporting the Bay Area

Who:	Not-for-profit community organizations and clubs in the Bay Area.
What:	A Community Calendar of non-commercial events and meeting details for all to see online. And, a Community Bulletin Board of Member postings.
Where:	www.cc-net.org
When:	Member organizations can post events at any time that are immediately displayed
Why:	To provide a single source of up-to-date information about events in our communities of interest to families, youth, seniors, and other organizations.

CC-Net connects the many groups and volunteer based organizations that help make our community a vibrant, interesting and fun place to live. By sharing information among volunteer organizations, we better engage with our friends and neighbours.
